From the Pastor

Dear Parishioners:

The second Sunday of Advent is a time for us to focus in on the role of Mary in the whole story of the incarnation. Mary is a pivotal figure in how this story comes about and without her willingness to accept God's will for her, things would have been much different.

This coming Tuesday is the Patronal Feast of our Lady under the title of the Immaculate Conception. This feast acknowledges that Mary from the time she was conceived by her mother St. Anne was without sin. It is an important doctrine of our faith to understand. If Mary had been born with original sin then it would not have been possible for her to bear a child who was without sin, Jesus. The plan of salvation begins to unfold long before the birth of Jesus on Christmas. Mary's embracing of the call of God to bear His Son is the next step and ultimately Jesus' death and resurrection accomplish the fullness of God's plan for us.

To understand the power of what Mary agrees to do it is important for us to remember that she lived in a society where women had no rights at all. They were not supposed to even speak publicly and could only be in the company of a man if it was her husband. The fact that someone who was raised in this tradition would have the courage to say "yes" to God's message delivered to her by an angel is in and of itself outstanding.

The path that Mary agreed to follow was probably not her idea of how she was going to live her life. She most likely had her own dreams and plans as any young person would have. Her courage in putting those plans aside and saying 'yes' is what makes her an extraordinary role model for us today. Think about how so much of our lives are planned and scheduled. Children are very often given a set of expectations from their parents so that they will be able to go to a specific school or become part of a specific profession. Sometimes it almost seems as if there is no real opportunity for spontaneity to occur.

As we honor Mary during the Advent season we do so with the understanding that she was a courageous young woman of faith who relied on her God to act in such a way that would only be in her best interest.

Sincerely,

Rev. Robert J. DeJulio,
Pastor

Parish Announcements

The Christmas Spirit At OLPH-St. Catharine

Due to COVID-19 our Giving Tree is going online. You will find more information in ways to donate by scrolling down this bulletin and in the back of the church. All donations are greatly appreciated.

Silent Christmas Boutique

We will not be able to hold our typical event this year, although financial needs continue. In lieu of our regular function, we are holding the Silent Christmas Boutique, a donation-based fundraiser. More information in the fourth page of this bulletin.

Next Weekend

As the median age of women and men in religious communities continues to rise the need to care for retired members rises as well, these people who have spent their life in service to the Lord and the church seek our help. Next weekend's second collection will offer them so much needed assistance and offer us an opportunity to say thank you for a life well lived.

Christmas Mass Schedule

The schedule has not been finalized as we are waiting for capacity updates from the state and the Archdiocese. We will send out the information as soon as possible. There will be a limit on attendance and online reservations will be required. Please do not call the church office at this time.

Holyday of Obligation

Tuesday, December 8th is the Feast of the Immaculate Conception of Mary. It is the patron feast of the United States. Mass at OLPH will be at 8AM & 9AM, and 7PM, and at St. Catharine at 9AM.

To Feed the Hungry

Our town had a goal of 900 boxes for Thanksgiving-In-A-Box with a hope for 1000. The final tally was just shy of 1200. What a great show of support to those in need! The Thanksgiving Day collection was $350 and was sent to HOPE.

HOPE Soup Kitchen

St. Catharine's next HOPE meal is on Wednesday, December 16th. Food should be brought to the Parish Center by noon on that day. Our menu is beef franks and buns, baked beans, Cole slaw, and sugar cookies.

Since HOPE Soup Kitchen is closed on Christmas Day OLPH will not be participating this month. However, we encourage you to participate with St. Catharine on December 16th.

If you would like to help, but are unable to get to the store, DeCicco's in Pelham is helping us by preparing and delivering the food. Simply contact Brittany Arocho at brittanya@deciccos.com or 914-775-8880. Thank you for your support!

Prayer Group

The Prayer Group will meet on Tuesday, Dec. 15th @ 7:00PM. This year, the biweekly meeting will be held virtually-via phone. Simply call 1-720-740-9707 and enter the access code 2990487#. You will be asked to state your name, and then will be connected. All are welcome!
